The 2022 Pinot Grigio lifts from the glass with a delicate blend of white flowers and ginger-tinged yellow apples. It's soothingly round with tactile mineral tones that add a crunchy sensation as tart orchard fruits cascade throughout. Lime nuances resonate through the medium length and crisply refreshing finale.

A fresh array of crushed apples, chamomile and stone dust wafts up from the 2022 Chardonnay. This is round with a pretty inner sweetness offset by tart orchard fruits and hints of sour citrus. It finishes crunchy and long with a pleasantly chewy sensation and a saline tinge of minerality.

2022 Chardonnay Marna 91 POINTS

The 2022 Chardonnay Marna slowly blossoms in the glass as crushed stone and white flowers give way to hints of confectionary spice and freshly sliced pears. This is soothingly round and vividly fruit-focused, with ripe nectarines offset by lemon zest and a salty staining of minerality that amasses toward the close. The 2022 finishes long and full of youthful tension, leaving a citrusy concentration that lingers on and on.

2022 Sauvignon Indra 92 POINTS

Freshly cut grass, spring rain, concrete and zests of lemon, the 2022 Sauvignon Indra invokes summertime childhood nostalgia with its spicy bouquet. This is wickedly fresh with cooling acidity and mineral tones, paving the way for a core of candied citrus and crunchy green apple. It tapers off remarkably fresh yet potent, leaving the palate with a tart grapefruit rind concentration lifted by hints of fresh mint. The 2022 is dramatic yet graceful and refined. Bravo.

2021 Pinot Noir Patricia 92 POINTS

A stunning translucent ruby color, the 2021 Pinot Noir Patricia wafts up from the glass with a pretty blend of dusty rose, cedar shavings and dried strawberries. This is lifted and refined, with cooling acidity and plush textures offset by a core of tart red berry fruits. Savory spice hints form toward the close. Graceful to the very end, the 2021 tapers off gently, tannic and long, leaving sour cranberry and licorice traces to linger. The Patricia is already quite stunning yet has the balance for a steady evolution over the next four to six

2021 Pinot Noir Riserva Trattmann 94 POINTS

Dark and brooding, the 2021 Pinot Noir Riserva Trattmann entices with an array of exotic spices, incense and dried florals before evolving further with black cherry and clove notes. This is pure elegance on the deeply textural palate, with silken textures and polished red and blue fruits swirling across a stream of lively acidity. The 2021 doesn't miss a beat, tapering off long and staining, also spicy and savory, leaving a web of fine-grained tannins and hints of black tea to resonate on. Simply spellbinding.
